

Frank Lloyd Wright Trust

With sadness, we have learned of the passing of Anne Lloyd Wright-Levi, the great-granddaughter of Frank Lloyd Wright. In 2008, along with her sisters, Kimberly and Karen, Anne helped facilitate the donation and delivery of the piano to the playroom of the Home and Studio. The 1913 Steinway baby grand was in David Wright's family for eighty-five years and is believed to have been once housed in the Oak Park Home and Studio.
